

Saturday, April 17
11:00AM – 6:00PM
Along Main Street
Aqueduct, Waterfront & Library

VILLAGE-WIDE EVENT CELEBRATING THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF EARTH DAY

WALK to the Village with Family, Neighbors & Friends

SPEND A DAY OF FUN AND ECO-LEARNING IN THE VILLAGE CENTER

Choose from a variety of activities with a green theme:

DEMOS, INFO-TALKS, DISPLAYS, FOOD, MUSIC, SALES, TOURS

Green Vendor Fair

Talks and Tips on Energy Saving

Irvington Village Farmers Market

Sustainable Architecture Guided Tour at the Waterfront

Animals and their Habitats – Hands on and Interactive

Trees – Kick-off launch of Re-Leaf Irvington: Tree Planting Ceremony

Old Croton Aqueduct Nature Walks – Is that a hawk?

Invasive Plants – What's the Story and What can you do?

Composting – How-To Demonstration

Worms and Composting – Find out the Secrets from our kids

Transportation of the Future – View Innovative Alternative Fuel Vehicles

Garbage – How to have Less; Recycling – How to do More and do it Better

Art Displays and Kids' Activities: Focus on Sustainability Themes

Irvington School District Projects and Displays

Gardens and Lawns – Rain Barrels, Chemical Free and Much More

Irvington Trails – Get Maps, Sign Up, Find out about all that public open space

Music, Crafts and Movies – Sustainable Themes

Local Craft Artists - Creative Reuse of Recycled Materials

How Green is My Town?

Try the Green Scavenger Hunt or Rent a Bike

Local Businesses with Sidewalk Sales

Watch the Village website for further details: www.irvingtonny.gov and plan to get involved

The Earth Day 40 Committee, appointed by the Irvington Village Board of Trustees, is chaired by the Village's 3 Volunteer Sustainability Coordinators, Petra Kandus, Jen Williams and Francis Goudie. Other members include former Mayor Nicola Coddington, as well as representatives from the Tree Commission, the Environmental Conservation Board, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Trails Committee and Irvington Land Trust, the Irvington School District and PTSA, Beautification Committee and the Irvington arts community. The day's events are also being coordinated with the Irvington Village Farmers Market, the Irvington Library, the Irvington Historical Society, The Friends of the Old Croton Aqueduct, Greenburgh Nature Center, Grassroots Hudson Valley, the Departments of Police and Public Works, the local business community and Chamber of Commerce, the Scouts and others.